

Maggie Lindemann, Friends Go

i am all myslef
where did all my friends go?

I miss those late nights just you and I up in my bedroom till sunrise could spend all night talking to you even if I was the only one talking they busted the door they don't see you at all that don't men you ain;t there cause I kno wthet you are swear it's true they said that I was the only one talking
