

Magnitude 9, End Of Time

As I lie awake, amidst the silence, I think about the places you might be, although the feeling's not gone, I know it's you I'm far from and this loneliness is consuming me.

And I scream out loud but no one hears, alone in this silence to face my fears

I wait for the moment when you come back again, thought that you always be there till the end of time

Never thought I'd see the day, never thought that time would end

(solo)

I feel the pain and sadness, I'm alone in this madness, Can't change a thing to bring you back to me, I still feel you, you're here but my thoughts are not clear, I'm not the same, as I used to be

Never thought I'd see the day, never thought that time would end

I wait for the moment, when you come back again, Thought that you'd always be there, till the end of time, Now the walls come closing in. as I close my mind, Time's running short for us, to the end of time, End of time, end of time, end of time

Thought that you'd always be there, end of time, Now the walls come closing in, end of time, end of time, end of time.....
