

Magnum, Shoot

You take a dangerous line, holding a loaded gun
It's just a matter of time before you hurt someone
So keep your running shoes close and sing your rebel song
Then disappear like a ghost, the hunter won't be long

Don't you know there's no forgiving
Like a rabbit on the run?
When you have to go on living by the gun...

Well, go on, shoot, someone cries, that's the beginning
Go on, shoot, justify the blood you're spilling
Come on, shoot, show the world that you're not kidding

All gather deep in the earth, a careless light betrays
Be feared, the devil, he's at work, no place to end your days
To hold the balance of the fight and scream your hearts desire
Don't give you automatic right to quench the holy fire

Don't you know there's no forgiving
Like a rabbit on the run?
When you have to go on living by the gun...

Well, go on, shoot, someone cries, that's the beginning
Go on, shoot, justify the blood you're spilling
Come on, shoot, show the world that you're not kidding
