

Magnum, The Great Disaster

I'll tell you something about the things that you should know
And you'll learn as you grow and in turn
Be one step further along the road to realise
There's no rules, bad advice, many fools

First class performance to fill the lines of empty heads
There's still hope for the dream but you don't Embrace disorder, it will chill you from inside
And destroy everything that you try

Innocent faces look up in the classroom
Soon their time will come

So beware of the skilful disguises
It's too easy to dress up in white
For this world can be full of surprises
From the gutter a kingdom looks nice
You're learning, there's no returning

This final blunder, for which they all expect our thanks
They will hide from the kill to survive
The great disaster, they'll take great care and will avoid Being there 'cause it's more than they dare

Innocent faces look up in the classroom
Soon their time will come

Don't be fooled by the shining appearance
It gets tarnished in time, don't we all
They'll be wearing their wealth on their fingers
And instructing us all how to fall
You're learning, there's no returning
