

Make Up Your Mind, Blown Away

Verse:

Wait for me,
I couldn't find a mirror to see who I used to be,
I was lost, wondering around,
for a second I lost my own identity.

Pre-Chorus:

Like a thunderstorm, a speeding train,
A cannonball that struck my brain,
You've blown me away, you've blown me away,
You've blown me away.

Chorus:

You blew me away,
When I was upon my self-build pedestal,
I thought I was making it,
But I was going nowhere,
I was just sinking away.

Bridge:

I can't give anything away,
If you didn't give it to me,
I can't bring anything,
If you didn't bring it to me.
