

Making April, Brighter Bright i've been lying through my teeth today to keep inside and you from him tonight but you'll bite on every word he'll say i don't know why you buy them over and over again so don't pretend that this feels right i feel fine

taste me, won't you crave me every night chase me girl, i'll make you feel alright there's a brighter bright on the other side so take me for yourself and i will show you why there's a brighter bright your the rabbit he's the bird of prey and you'll run right in his grip tonight cause you love the way he gets you low there's no escaping only scraping along for the ride and i can't bear to watch you cry please don't cry

chase me girl, i'll make you feel alright
i'm waiting till your crazy enough to try
there's a brighter bright

and chase me girl, i'll make you feel alright
