

Makowiecki Band, Stay beatiful

Find your faith in your security
All broken up at seventeen
Jam your brain with broken heroes
Love your masks and adore your failure
We're a mess of eyeliner and spraypaint
DIY destruction on Chanel chic
In the culture of consumption
This is a culture of destruction
Don't wanna see your face
Don't wanna hear your words
Why don't you just...
Don't wanna see your face
Don't wanna hear your words
Why don't you just...
Babes on the run with poisoned lips
Wrap your arms around this everlasting kiss
Clinging to your own sense of waste
All we love is lonely wreckage
Your school your dole and your chequebook dreams
Your clothes your suits and your pension schemes
Now you say you know how we feel
But don't fall in love cos we hate you still
Don't wanna see your face
Don't wanna hear your words
Why don't you just...
Don't wanna see your face
Don't wanna hear your words
Why don't you just..
Destroyed by madness
Destroyed by madness
Destroyed by madness
Anxiety is freedom
