

Man, Day And Night

Singing a song to an empty room and then hoping that people will applaud
Searching out pictures of friends she has known and then trying to believe that there's a god
Day and night she's dreaming, day and night she's screaming

Mama, ooh

Mama, ooh

Day and night she's dreaming, day and night she's screaming

Mama, ooh

Mama, ooh

Stumbling and falling and lying there hoping that someone will come and pick her up
Forgetting the lessons she learned about living, and trying to fill a broken cup

Day and night she's dreaming, day and night she's screaming

Mama, ooh

Mama, ooh

Day and night she's dreaming, day and night she's screaming

Mama, ooh

Mama, ooh

The devil is talking his voice is familiar, and suddenly I know the voice is mine
It's me who has made her afraid to be happy, and tried to make her believe all my lying

Day and night she's dreaming, day and night she's screaming

Mama, ooh

Mama, ooh

Day and night she's dreaming, day and night she's screaming

Mama, ooh

Mama, ooh

Day and night she's dreaming, day and night she's screaming

Mama, ooh

Mama, ooh

Day and night she's dreaming, day and night she's screaming

Mama, ooh

Mama, ooh

Day and night

Day and night

Day and night

Day and night
