

Mandaryna, Love is just a game

Love is just a game to play my feelings cant be wrong Love is just a word you say I know I can be strong
Love is just a game
I want to play it right with you noone is to blame
I hope you play it too
Love is just a game
it makes me wanna fly away
The laughter and the pain
You know what to do
In my mind, the memories of games
I used to play long ago the feelings that I have they fade away You will see, my heart is bleeding oh so deep in me Hold me close, I used to be much stronger when I'm here with you I know for sure, I don't need to explain Come with me, I take you to a place where I belong feel my heart, you got the might to keep me safe and strong On my way, there never was a place I felt to stay hold me tight
I used to be much stronger that I'm here with you I know for sure, don't need to explain
