

Mandy Moore, It's Christmas

I'm not supposed to feel this way
We're closing in on Christmas day
When the world is upside down, we're gonna make it through somehow
Don't you worry, we'll be fine
Snow will fall and stars will shine even in the worst of times
It's Christmas for the ones you leave behind

The colours of our country still
Your mother's hands and father's will
Even if we're half awake, they cannot take our heroes away

Don't you worry, we'll be fine
Snow will fall and stars will shine even in the worst of times
It's Christmas for, for the ones you leave behind

(Behind, behind, behind...)

Oh... yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah

Don't you worry, we'll be fine
Snow will fall and stars will shine
I'm praying for the ordinary
Everybody needs to carry
Everybody, have a merry Christmas from the ones you leave behind

(Behind, behind...)

Merry Christmas...
