

Manfred Mann, Theres No Living Without Your Lovin'

There's no living without your loving, baby
I love you too much

If I can't love you till the day I die
Then baby, oh baby, what good am I?
If I can't reach out & know that you'll be there
Then this ol' world ain't spinnin' anywhere

CHORUS:

There's no living without your loving
Without the magic of your tender touch
There's no living without your loving, baby
I love you too much

& I wouldn't want to live my life through
Knowing in my heart I never will have you
Oh, if I can't hold you & kiss you anymore
Then what on earth am I living for?

(chorus)

Oh I love you too much
Oh much much too much
Oh baby

(chorus)
