

Manfred Mann, Travelling Lady

Travelling Lady stay a while
Travelling Lady stay a while
Though I miss your rest in lace
Ain't you got a little more time to waste?

You reign an hour like the wind and rain
You reign an hour like the wind and rain
Though sometimes you light my night
You're always gone by the morning light

Travelling Lady stay a while
Travelling Lady stay a while
Must you always reappear
So that you can disappear?
