

Manfred Mann, Where Am I Going

It's hard to be a man
Wear a smile when all around
So many things are wrong

Happy days are yesterdays
Now the dream I used to chase
Have fallen from my eyes

Where am I going?
Where am I drifting to?
With nothing to believe in
When anything would do

Hey, believer, say a prayer
Help me now in my despair
And don't wait too long

Where am I going?
Where am I drifting to?
With nothing to believe in
When anything would do

It's hard to be a man
Wear a smile when all around
So many things are wrong
