

Marc Almond, My Love

Satin, satin and velvet leather and lipstick
on the one that I love Cheap gold, necklace of cheap gold Plastic and rhinestones
on the one that I love My love acts like a porno star talks like a trickster and tricks like a whore But my love looks like an icon and that's what I adore Vinyl, rubber and vinyl viscose and velcro
on the one that I love
Purple week-old mascara
A broken tiara
on the one that I love My love wakes up on vodka beds down on valium and sleeps on the floor My love looks beautifully wasted
and that's what I adore My love loves tattoos in biro love bites in lager and long menthol fags My love smokes like Bette Davis in short, vicious drags My love sleeps like an angel dreams like the devil
On sheets of velor
My love is a living disaster and that's oh yeah that's what I adore
