Marc Bolan, Spaceball Ricochet

I'm just a man
I understand the wind
And all the things
That make the children cry
With my Les Paul
I know I'm small
But I enjoy living
Anyway

Book after book I get hooked Everytime the writer Talks me like a friend What can I do We just live in a zoo All I do is play The spaceball ricochet

Deep in my heart There's a house That can hold just about all of you I bought a car It was old but kind I gave it my mind And it disappeared

I love a girl
She is a changeless angel
She's a city it's a pity
That I'm like me
I said how can I lay
When all I do is play
The spaceball ricochet
