

MARC COHN, One Safe Place

How many roads youve traveled
How many dreams youve chased
Across sand and sky and gravel
Looking for one safe place
Will you make a smoother landing
When you break your fall from grace
Into the arms of understanding
Looking for one safe place
Life is trial by fire
And loves the sweetest taste
And I pray it lifts us higher
To one safe place
How many roads weve traveled
How many dreams weve chased
Across sand and sky and gravel
Looking for one safe place
