

Marcus & Martinus, Pocket Dial

been so good, I'm forgetting you almost forgot how I was working I'm forgetting you suddenly it's like the world has been working against me already know you ain't gone, believe me but both my hands, they were occupied there was no way to grab my phone get you on the line baby, I already know you ain't gone,. believe me but believe me

I didn't mean to pocket dial you again baby, since I pocket dialed you, jow you been?
it's been some time since I heard your voice
I didn't mean to call, but you had a choice to pick up when I pocket dialed you again my heart's in better pace since I called just pop right in, then run away no, all I ghave is this old text message and pictures no, I am not saying I miss you because I didn't mean to pocket dial you again

baby, since I pocket dialed you, jow you been?
it's been some time since I heard your voice
I didn't mean to call, but you had a choice
to pick up when I pocket dialed you again

I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it

I said: I didn't mean to pocket dial you again
baby, since I pocket dialed you, jow you been?
it's been some time since I heard your voice
I didn't mean to call, but you had a choice
to pick up when I pocket dialed you again

I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
