Margaret, All I Need

Standing on a crowded crossroad I?m trying to read the signs It?s gonna take some time For a pull what?s that and get this right Yesterday is just a memory Today I faded smile Tomorrow will come with the beautiful drum I?m playing my part And I feel there?s a ray of hope In my too weak eyes is calm Oh yeah, and I know I will find a home Somewhere in the gray unknown And you know...

Life is better wheel of fortune But nothing never comes for free And I?m taking my name from a lie we gotta believe I?m all I need Live is better crazy bus ride I?m figthing for a see whirlwind And I?m kicking my way to the driver see Gotta be strong I gotta see Gotta belive I?m all I need

I?m ready to face the music And I?m writting my own song I gotta let go I?m writting down notes I?m playing by ear And I feel there?s a ray of hope In my too weak eyes is calm ohhh Oh Yea and I know I will find a home Somewhere in the gray unknown And you know And you know

Life is better wheel of fortune But nothing never comes for free And I?m taking my name from a lie we gotta believe I?m all I need Live is better crazy bus ride I?m figthing for a see whirlwind And I?m kicking my way to the driver see I gotta see I gotta belive I?m all I need I gotta see I must belive I?m all I need

And I know I will find a home Somewhere in the gray unknown And you know
