

Margaret, Sad Clown

There's something not right
Think I'm wasting my time
I've got to move on with my life
I've got to let love die, let love die

I'm a sad girl
Living in a perfect world
I'm a sad girl
Happiness is so absurd
And I'm sad
I'm a sad clown
Living in a circus
And I'm sad
I'm a sad clown
Living in a circus

I've heard what you said
It's just not making sense
There's something wrong with my head
I've got to let love end, let love end

I see clear with my eyes closed
I hear voices that I shouldn't know
I spoke to the psycho
He gave me hell in a bottle

I'm a sad girl
Living in a perfect world
I'm a sad girl
Happiness is so absurd
And I'm sad
I'm a sad clown
Living in a circus
And I'm sad
I'm a sad clown
Living in a circus

Any minute now, any minute now
It's gonna kick in any minute from now
Any minute now, any minute now
This frowns gonna get flipped upside down
Any minute now, any minute now
It's gonna kick in any minute from now
Can't stay up but I can't stay down
Stay down, stay down

I'm a sad girl
Living in a perfect world
I'm a sad girl
Happiness is so absurd
And I'm sad
I'm a sad clown
Living in a circus

I'm a sad girl
Living in a perfect world
I'm a sad girl
Happiness is so absurd
And I'm sad
I'm a sad clown
Living in a circus
And I'm sad
I'm a sad clown
Living in a circus
