

Maria Sadowska, Coda - Kołysanka Rosemary II

Welcome to my world (hey)
It has to be now or never
(It has to be now or never)
Open your eyes
You ain't gonna live forever

It's not easy to make choice
When you keep your eyes closed
Look at me and let it be
'Cause now it's time for love

Follow my music
The travel ... (?) in your mind, in your mind
The travel through feelings
Different sounds and time

I will sing this road for you
Something old and something new
Look at me and let it be
'Cause now it's time for love

It's time for love
