

Marie Fredriksson, Stay

When i look into your eyes i can stand a thing outside is a summer time
but in my heart
there's rain
why should it have to be slave behind what;s not to day

darling promise me
you will stay!

last time i told te friend that you're my love for life hinking about loosin you cau me through like a night sometiem i could reach tour hot no matter how, or what i say

darling promise me
you will stay!
you will stay!
