

Marie Osmond, Read My Lips

Sometimes I can be so shy
I keep my emotions deep inside
And I try to tell you how much you mean to me but each time I start out I get stuck, words don't come easily

(Chorus)

When the feel of my hand and the warmth of my touch ain't enough
don't give up
Read My Lips
If your heart doesn't hear when my arms draw you near it will soon, soon be clear
Read My Lips

Lovin' eyes gaze into mine lookin' for some kind of sign If I were a poet, my feelings were poetry I'd send you a thousand lines about how much you mean to me

(Chorus)

Time after time
I try my best to say how much I need you darlin'
The words just never came

(Chorus)
