

Marika, Here goes

I always tried to stay cool
Always tried to keep you in a distance
But your love was chasing me
And now you caught my heart
Treat me really carefully
Treat me like a treasure
Right next to me you're gonna be
These few long hours
There's no denying it
And then we'll wake
Wake for the new day
We'll have to part
Do what's to be done
So that we can share another night
right my bwoy
Treat me really carefully
Treat me like a treasure
Make sure that I'm the best
Thing that happend to you ever
These few long hours
There's no denying it
And then we'll wake
Wake for the new day
We'll have to part
Do what's to be done
I always tried to stay cool...
