Marillion, Going Under

(Dick/Kelly/Mosley/Rothery/Trewavas)

Is it wrong to talk to myself even when there's nobody else I'm just checking out that I'm not gone under the water Thrown on the beach like a seal ready for slaughter Can't you understand that the way things were planned It never worked out so I just went crazy I took to the drink, like something says its "maybe"

I ain't got no excuse and that's really the news Got nothing else to say, that it's my way, it's always my way I seem to be running away so often

I'll try anything once and that's the way we should be But it's always the same getting caught up again in a habit A habit I just can't shake off the way it always turned out

Can you understand it's the way I choose to be Everything seems so easy this way but I'm going under fast Slipping away Am I so crazy
