Marillion, The Rakes Progress

(Hogarth/Kelly/Mosley/Rothery/Trewavas)

What do you do when your roots have dissolved and broken down And the soil that you grew in when you were small Has become nothing more than dirt in some dirty town When you list all the qualities that you despise And you realise You're describing yourself

And breaking someone up inside Is your only source of pride