

Marilyn Manson, Believe

Do you favor all with good intention?
Never mind the destination
Sex, Guns, and Anarchy
Blood, Guts, and Sodomy

Mutually your shore destruction
Backing down is not an option
Sex, Guns, and Anarchy
Blood, Guts, and Sodomy

How this works
You sell

You gotta believe in me
I am everything
I'm the final step you take towards your sanity
You gotta believe in me
I am everything
I'm the only one still left in your reality
You gotta believe in me

You dug a hole and fell inside
Your perfect world was compromised
Sex, Guns, and Anarchy
Blood, Guts, and Sodomy

You still don't know who the hell you are
You're only worried about the balance on your credit card
Sex, Guns, and Anarchy
Blood, Guts, and Sodomy

How this works
You sell

You gotta believe in me
I am everything
I'm the final step you take towards your sanity
You gotta believe in me
I am everything
I'm the only one still left in your reality
You gotta believe in me

TV sells hypocrisy
It's feeding off of apathy
Above the surface all is well
But dig up it and go to hell

Just put a bullet in my head
I've already have been left for dead

Just shut your mouth and close your eyes
Reality's alive

You gotta believe in me
I am everything
I'm the final step you take towards your sanity
You gotta believe in me
I am everything
