

Marilyn Manson, I Want to Kill You Like They Do

I wanna fuck you like a foreign film and there's no subtitles to get you through this and I'm a country you don't ever, ever, ever, ever, ever want to visit again
Line up,
Roll camera
you pretend,
I'll pretend,
and
cut, cut, cut, cut
I want to kill you like they do in the movies
Don't worry there's another one just like you in line I'm a strip, strip, strip, and a flicker flick, flick, flick
a flicker of celluloid
and there's holes, holes, holes in my everything.
just what I projected.
come in, come in, come in, come inside,
so much, much, much more skin to break.
I haven't even taken off my gloves.
so much, much, much more skin to break.
I haven't even taken off my gloves.
I feel a little sorry baby,
I hear the afterlife is poorly scored.
You're lucky you don't have to wake up.
sick, sick, sick
I'm sick of immortality.
I'm sick of immortality.
