

Marilyn Manson, KILL4ME

let's grab a gold switch blade make us a blood pact to love to fuck to sell

would you kill, kill, kill for me I love you enough
to ask you again
would you kill, kill, kill for me
you won't be kissing me
unless you kill for me
kill , kill, kill
kill for me

bloody noses are just like roses
but what happens
are we betrayed

..

this is a scarify

because I take that frats like a best of them

would you kill, kill, kill for me I love you enough
would you kill, kill, kill for me
unless you kill for me
kill , kill, kill
kill for me
