

Marissa, By Your Side (piosenka z filmu 365 Dni:

Wish I coulda fix it up
Oh God, problems in my mind
I know I'm safe in your arms
My heart

You promised me that we'd be other than they
You took something perfect and painted it red
But I don't care at all

So if you need me
And you feel empty
I promise I will be
By your side
Sometimes, I'm tryin'
To understand it
Nobody is perfect enough

I'm not sober, is it love?
I need your touch, love and
Let love come again

You promised me that we'd be other than they
You took something perfect and painted it red
But I don't care at all

So if you need me
And you feel empty
I promise I will be
By your side
Sometimes, I'm tryin'
To understand it
Nobody is perfect enough
