

Marissa, Telephone (feat. Jhn McFly)

You want me to cry for you
Want me to want the pain
I won't break down for you

You want the best of me
For a little bit longer little bit longer
Run away a little bit faster
Little bit faster it's too late
Yu should know I've moved on
So good without you

Baby
If you think I'm waiting
I just need to let you know
You don't have to call no more
Baby
You've already lost me
So don't stay up all night long
Staring at your telephone

You, you always lied so good
Made me forget the the truth
Gave you more than I should Cause I know you

You want the best of me
For a little bit longer little bit longer
Run away a little bit faster
Little bit faster it's too late
You should know i've moved on
So good without you

Baby
If you think I'm waiting
I just need to let you know
you don't have to call no more
Baby
You've already lost me
So don't stay up all night long
Staring at your telephone
