

Mark Ronson, Late Night Feelings (ft. Lykke Li)

i weigh the water
i feel it all
I ask myself a million questions in the dark I lay myself in silence but silence talks it tells me that heaven is no closer than it as my heart keeps pulling in the wrong direction I'm about to cross the line looking for the wrong affection night after night trying to find a new distraction want to make it last all night everything that I've been mixin' all mixed up inside

when I get to want ya
and I wanna call ya
whit late night feelings

ona sn on and on feeling on and on on and ona on and on white late night feelings
