Maroon 5, Nothing Lasts Forever

It is so easy to see Dysfunction between you and me We must free up these tired souls Before the sadness kills us both

I've tried and tried To let you know I love you But I'm letting go It may not last But I don't know I just don't know

If you don't know Then you can't care Say you'll show up But you're not there But I'm waiting And you want to Still afraid that I will desert you

Everyday With every worthless word We get more far away The distance between us Makes it so hard to stay But nothing lasts forever But be honest babe It hurts but it may be the only way

A bed that's warm with memories Can heal us temporarily But misbehaving only makes The ditch between us so damn deep

Built a wall around my heart Never let it fall apart But strangely I wish secretly It would fall down while I'm asleep

If you don't know Then you can't care Say you'll show up But you're not there But I'm waiting And you want to Still afraid that I will desert you, babe

Everyday With every worthless word We get more far away The distance between us Makes it so hard to stay But nothing lasts forever But be honest babe It hurts but it may be the only way

Though we have not hit the ground Doesn't mean we're not still falling Oh, I want so bad to pick you up But you're still too Reluctant to accept my help What a shame I hope you find somewhere to place the blame But until then the fact remains

Everyday With every worthless word We get more far away The distance between us Makes it so hard to stay But nothing lasts forever But be honest babe It hurts but it may be the only way

Everyday With every worthless word We get more far away The distance between us Makes it so hard to stay But nothing lasts forever But be honest babe It hurts but it may be the only way
