

Martin Garrix & Troye Sivan, There For You

I woke up pissed off today
And, baby, everyone feels fake
Somewhere I lost a piece of mine
Smoking cigarettes on balconies
But I can't do this alone
Sometimes I just need a light
If I call you on the phone
And you're on the other side

So when your tears roll down
Your pillow like a river
I'll be there for you /2x

I got you a promise
Let me be honest
Love is a road
That goes both ways

When your tears roll down
Your pillow like a river
I'll be there for you
But you gotta be there for me too

But you gotta be there for me too

Last year took a toll on me
But i'll make it with you next to me
Around the world and back again
I hope you're waiting at the end
But I can't do this alone
Sometimes I just need a light
If I call you on the phone
And you're on the other side

So when your tears roll down
Your pillow like a river
I'll be there for you /2x

I got you a promise
Let me be honest
Love is a road
That goes both ways

When your tears roll down
Your pillow like a river
I'll be there for you
But you gotta be there for me too

But you gotta be there for me too

But I'm holding on to something
Wake up if you feel nothing
I'm running ,m running
Just to get my hands on you
There was a time
When I was sober
But I got to show you
I'm running ,m running
I'm running ,m running
I'm running ,m running
I'm running ,m running

Just to get my hands on you

But you gotta be there for me too
