Martin Jondo, Rise Up

I saw we rise up and well never give it up
Jah never loose Jah power and we never loose Jah love
My people rise up out of the evil dust [2x]
Born in Babylon but me know me cant stay
So me taking Jah train while dem are fading away
Falling asleep while dem think dem are awake
You got to shake em before its to late yau
Evil greedy thoughts ruling over mankind
Still dem asking god oh why
Answer man a born with own hands
Own hearts own sense yau
With your own to hands you got to work
With your own to hands you got to fulfil your word
With your own to hands you make peace of war
Peace of war

With your own to hands youll make it work

With your own to hands you can change dis ya world

With your own to hands you rule over your life

Rule your life

I saw we rise up and well never give it up

Jah never loose Jah power and we never loose Jah love My people rise up out of the evil dust rise, rise, rise [2x]

Rise up, rise up, rise up

Too many times me saw lie ina dem face Burning another hut to glorify dem race yau

Selling telling what dem never eaten up before

But Jah Jah rain fall for sure

How many rhymes of Jah Jah people dem ignore

Killing another culture to get more and more

But no matter what dem say and na no matter what dem do

Natty dread push on through so

Come a come a dance my sister

You come a come a dance my brother

Come a come a dance my sister

Dance with me my brother

Come a come a dance my sister

You come a come a dance my brother

We dont need to suffer no longer

I saw we rise up and well never give it up

Jah never loose Jah power and we never loose Jah love My people rise up out of the evil dust rise, rise, rise [2x]

Rise up, rise up

Rise, rise, rise [2x]
