

Martin Nievera, Each Day With You

Each Day With You
Martin Nievera

Flowers oh, on this lovely evening
Though they have no words
they share my feelings;

As we walk along the avenue,
Pardon me, I just can't help staring at you.

When I look into those
sparkling eyes,
If float in the air and wonder
in paradise;
You give my heart a source of inspiration,
Your beauty is beyond imagination.

CHORUS:

You are the one
The only one I desire,
When we touch,
When we're one you light the fire;

The seasons we share
Hand in hand, there seems to be no time,
Each day with you becomes a Valentine.

Time must go on and so must we
Moments slip away to unlock the memories;
One day as we look back with
all this treasure,
Candle light that shines beyond before.

(REPEAT CHORUS EXCEPT LAST LINE)

Each day with you becomes a Valentine.
Your beauty is beyond imagination.

(REPEAT CHORUS EXCEPT LAST LINE, 2X)

Each day with you becomes Valentine.

(REPEAT CHORUS FADING)
