

Mary J. Blige, Don't Waste Your Time

[Mary]

Lately I've got this funny feeling
Something don't feel the same
But he's telling me I'm the one to blame
Yes I know that he still gives me good loving
But when he's deep inside
There's somebody else on his mind

[1] - [Aretha] Don't waste your time

[Mary] But it gets so hard to know

[Aretha] Just walk away

[Mary] You say that I gotta let go

[Both] Seen it a millions times before

[Aretha] You shouldn't take his stuff no more

[Mary] Can't waste my time

[Aretha] Girl, it's not hard to know

[Mary] Should walk away

[Aretha] Oh, you've gotta let him go

[Both] Seen it a millions times before

[Mary] Shouldn't take his ish no more

[Aretha]

Sister girl, sister girl

It's much deeper than what you're thinking

When something don't feel the same

Hey you better believe his love has change

(And I have been telling you, telling you)

And what you're telling me

(Cuz it's been hurting me, hurting me)

It ain't, ain't any fool can see

He's got a sweetie on the side

Stop making truth out of his lies

[Repeat 1]

[Aretha & Mary]

What's the point of love

When you got no trust

What's the point of staying

When you seen enough

What's the point of giving

What he don't deserve

[Mary]

He don't deserve it

No you don't deserve it

[Aretha]

Oh what's the point of feeling

[Aretha & Mary]

Like there's nothing inside

What's the point of saying

That you still got your pride

What's the point of giving

What he don't deserve

This is a lesson of love

[Repeat 1 with ad libs until fade]
