Mary J. Blige, Flying Away

Me, you will go flying away I'm gon' take you lil' higher

We'll go flying away

Where the sun is wet and the rainbow's fly

Flying away

Unto another star

Where I'm mines and our hearts will find a way

Baby, here's your only chance

Call me your sunshine

On a rainy day- love is on the way Don't you worry bout nothing at all

If you really need a friend, it's me you could call

I won't bring you down

We'll fly high above the ground

And me and you

Me, you will go flying away

I'm gon' take you lil' higher

We'll go flying away

Where the sun is wet and the rainbow's fly

Flying away

Unto another star

Where I'm mines and our hearts will find a way

Ooh everything you're dreaming of

You can always find it

Inside me there's love

I won't push and shove

I'll be so gentle with your feelings you'll see

That you really need a woman and the woman is me

I won't play no games

I will always stay the same

Let's go higher baby

Me, you will go flying away

I'm gon' take you lil' higher

We'll go flying away

Where the sun is wet and the rainbow's fly

Flying away

Unto another star

Where I'm mines and our hearts will find a way

I know

That you feel so good

Up above

You see

You and me

So we'd go

We'll climb and we'll climb

And we're gunna get so high

Till we reach the stars

Finally get to Mars

We'll go higher babe

[Musiclude with Ad-libs]

Me, you will go flying away

I'm gon' take you lil' higher

We'll go flying away

Where the sun is wet and the rainbow's fly

Flying away

Unto another star

Where I'm mines and our hearts will find a way

Me, you will go flying away

I'm gon' take you lil' higher

We'll go flying away

Where the sun is wet and the rainbow's fly

Flying away

Unto another star

Where I'm mines and our hearts will find a way

Me, you will go flying away
I'm gon' take you lil' higher
We'll go flying away
Where the sun is wet and the rainbow's fly
Flying away
Unto another star
Where I'm mines and our hearts will find a way
Me, you will go flying away
I'm gon' take you lil' higher
We'll go flying away
Flying away
Unto another star
Where I'm mines and our hearts will find a way
