

matchbox twenty, Suffer Me

she wanted something just like the real thing he needed love and it all worked out some how he knows that love is the king of emotion but he can't touch her because she's too perfect now but she wasn't like that then and he wasn't like that then they were everything, everything they need chorus:

suffer me
call on me and i, i'll call on you
suffer me
call on me and i, i'll call on you, call on you she wasn't thinking about anyone else just then but she knew someone else would always come to mind because they were strangers living in the feeling they were scared when they heard they talked about love but it wasn't like that then it just wasn't like that then they took everything because everything was for real repeat chorus

oh yes they were thinning out at that moment they were all afraid started thinking that pretty soon one of them would leave she said suffer me

repeat chorus twice
