

Matisyahu, Fireproof

Fireproof
Rise in the morning
My fires still burning
I thank god I'm alive

We're climbing a mountain
And though you are hurting
I've got you by my side

I'm overwhelmed from the altitude
I take a breath and feel gratitude
I shift if my attitude

When I was walking on the avenue
Snow on my shoes
I just can't stay mad at you
Saturated in the light
I reach out to you
Take a breath through the smoke in my chest

Thank god
For the pain that made me
The love that saved me
When I was lost in my solitude
I found my gratitude

Thank god
Every fire I walked thru
Through the flames I could hear you
Rising up brand new
Now I'm fireproof
Now I'm fireproof

I had a dream I was lost in Morocco
In another place and time
I found a space to pray
Hide away
Highway to the sky

I was playing games with a tiger
Until flames from her momma eyes
Filled the room
But I was not consumed
Looked at my hand, it was water
Broken but I came back stronger
I was drawn from the river by Pharaoh's daughter

Thank god
For the pain that made me
The love that saved me
When I was lost in my solitude
I found my gratitude

Thank god
Every fire I walked thru
Through the flames I could hear you
Rising up brand new (felt the burn)
Now I'm fireproof
Now I'm fireproof

Thank god
Thank god
We got this and it's right in the pocket

Thank god
Thank god

For the pain that made me
The love that saved me
When I was lost in my solitude

Every fire I walked thru
Through the flames I could hear you
Now I'm fireproof
Now I'm fireproof

Thank god
Thank god
We got this and it's right in the pocket

Thank god
Thank god
We got this and it's right in the pocket
