

Matt Bellamy, Tomorrow's World

your eyes see clearer your hands can heal her your lips taste her beauty
don't you waste it
don't you waste it!

your body is stronger
your mind is a wonder
your heart is so full of love

look to tomorrow
the end of our sorrows
our world could be so full of joy
