

Matt Wertz, Marianne

California's come and gone
Now I got my mind back on
The open air and you on highway one
Baby, ever since that day
I've tried to get back to the place
Where everything was right under the sun

Marianne, Marianne, Marianne, I'm waiting

Saturday took you away
Sunday morning brought the rain
The cloudy skies are covering the blue
Why'd you have to disappear?
It's not the same without you here
When everything's reminding me of you

Marianne, Marianne, Marianne, I'm waiting to see you again
Marianne, Marianne, Marianne, I'm waiting to see you again

Would you come back? Won't you come back?
Cause' I'm waiting, I'm waiting
Would you come back? Won't you come back?
Cause' I'm waiting, I'm waiting to see you again

Marianne, Marianne, Marianne, I'm waiting
Marianne, Marianne, Marianne, I'm waiting
Marianne, Marianne, Marianne, I'm waiting
Marianne, Marianne, Marianne....
