Matt Wertz, Marianne

California's come and gone Now I got my mind back on The open air and you on highway one Baby, ever since that day I've tried to get back to the place Where everything was right under the sun

Marianne, Marianne, I'm waiting

Saturday took you away Sunday morning brought the rain The cloudy skies are covering the blue Why'd you have to disappear? It's not the same without you here When everythings reminding me of you

Marianne, Marianne, I'm waiting to see you again Marianne, Marianne, I'm waiting to see you again

Would you come back? Won't you come back? Cause' I'm waiting, I'm waiting Would you come back? Won't you come back? Cause' I'm waiting, I'm waiting to see you again

Marianne, Marianne, Marianne, I'm waiting Marianne, Marianne, Marianne, I'm waiting Marianne, Marianne, Marianne, I'm waiting Marianne, Marianne, Marianne....
