

McFly, Down goes another one

Did the best that I could
Said I'd die for you and I would
But I drowned all those feelings in the flood
Need to know if you're there
If you're listening to my prayers, to my tears
Feel like raindrops through the mud
How was I to know that a year ago
I'd need to read between the lines
And every lie and that's why
Every time I fall asleep my dreams are haunted,
And every time I close my eyes I'm not alone,
And every time I cry I'm right back where you wanted,
I try to drown you out so
Down goes another one
(Down goes another one)
Down goes another one
(Down goes another one)
Down goes another one
(Down goes another one)
Living fast
Dying young
But I'm living with what you've done
Now I face accusations
I won't run
No
I'm starting to remember things that you said
I'm unraveling what they meant
But the world moves on
You're just another one
And how can I go on
Cause when I'm in the sun
I see your shadow on the ground
But you're never there when
I turn around
Every time I fall asleep my dreams are haunted,
And every time I close my eyes I'm not alone,
And every time I cry I'm right back where you wanted,
I try to drown you out so
Down goes another one
(guitar solo)
And how can I go on
Cause when I'm in the sun
I see your shadow on the ground
(shadow on the ground)
But you're never there when
I turn around
Cause every time I fall asleep my dreams are haunted,
(dreams are haunted)
And every time I close my eyes I'm not alone,
And every time I cry I'm right back where you wanted,
(right back where you wanted)
I try to drown you out so
Down goes another one
(Hey)
Down goes another one
(Down goes another one)
Down goes another one
(Hey)
Down goes another one
(Down goes another one)
Down goes another one
Down goes another one
(Down goes another one)
Down goes another one
(Down goes another one)
