

Me And That Man (Adam Nergal Darski, John Po

When you speak I listen
I can hear that tongue of yours hissing
With every word
You spit venom
And I can't tell - if it's hell or heaven

And with your words
You got me going numb
And you do it
You do it just for fun
And I know that the devil's got your tongue
The devil's got your tongue
Yes, just for fun

The truth hurts
You ain't lying
And tehre's no sense to be crying
You're just a mirror
And i cna see you
And wehn you speak
It gets a little bit clearer

And with your words
You got me going numb
And you do it
You do it just for fun
And I know that the devil's got your tongue
The devil's got your tongue
Yes, just for fun
