

Meat Loaf, Did I Say That? (Remix)

So this is what it feels like to be the one left behind to give it all you've got and find You've already changed your mind and this is what it sounds like crying on the bed that we both made waiting for a sign that you just can't give me any kind of sign and I don't want to be here wide awake clinging to a love that can't be saved and hanging off the edge of every word you say and so I ask myself do I love you so much that I'm willing you let you go and at the tip of my tongue, the answer was yes but at the bottom of my heart I'm wondering did I say that oh no no did I say that oh sometimes you know I overreact and what I say is not a matter of fact and I wish that I could take it all back and you know I drag myself threw fire at your side and you know the gates of heaven are surely open wide and I need some sympathy here and I need someone to call my own I'm standing in the light of my mistakes and begging you to come home and I know you need some time to run and hide but the truth is hard to swallow when your choking on your pride so I ask myself do I love you so much that I'm willing to let you go and at the tip of my tongue, the answer was yes but at the back of my mind I'm wondering
did I say that
and what I say is not a matter of fact
and I wish that I could take it all back
did I say that
and I wish that I could take it all back and I need some sympathy here and I want a love to call my own I want to take you in the backseat now and slowly drive you home and I know you need some time to run and hide
and I don't wanna be this wide awake fighting for a love that I can't save and hanging off the edge of every word you say knowing that it might make me cry and I don't wanna be this complicated you can drag it out but I'll be waiting I stumbbled on I love you tonight but it sounded like goodbye
did i say that
oh did I tell you that I loved you cause I do it on a matter of fact
did i say that
did I say that (8x)
and I wish that I could take it all back so this what it feels like

to give it all you've got and find that you've already changed your mind
