

Meat Loaf, Razor's Edge

Never callin', unanswered letters, how you been, feelin' better?
Never lookin', but you're hearin', never speakin', but you're feeling All the silence, and it's wounding, you're not healing, just concealing

Play the game, play the game

[Chorus:]

Oh brother to brother, all the blood runs red Don't roll over, don't play dead
We're all livin' on the razor's edge

Oh brother to brother, all the blood runs ruby red We're all victims of the razor's edge

All the rules don't mean a thing, they're wasting time,
the mem'ries sting
Keep your image, plant that smile, answer questions, don't let on Make up stories all put on, that's your life, oh,
your life is gone

[Chorus]

You see you're losing, yet you still try
The game just a'watches your life go by

You're playin' well, you're playin' - why?
Oh, play the game

You see you're losing, yet you still try
The game just a'watches your life go by You're playin' well,
oh you're playin' the game

[Chorus]
