

Meat Loaf, You're Right, I Was Wrong

Should've listened when you said I'd miss you
Should've listened but I could not hear
You said I'd want you back
I said not a chance
Now I can see I was so blind

You're right I was wrong
To ever leave you
I made a mistake
I'm sorry now
You're right I was wrong
To ever let you go
Now I know, now I know
You're right I was wrong

Couldn't see it when I had you with me
Couldn't see that I had everything
And now I see it clear
And you're not here
You said someday I'd change my mind

You're right I was wrong
To ever leave you
I made a mistake
I'm sorry now
You're right I was wrong
To ever let you go
Now I know, now I know
You're right I was wrong

If I could have one more chance to hold you
I would keep you here in my arms
And never let you go
Because now I know

You're right I was wrong
To ever leave you
I made a mistake
I'm sorry now
You're right I was wrong
To ever let you go
Now I know, baby now I know
You're right I was wrong
