

Meden Agan, Everlasting Pain

Awakening...in cold sweat and still
Feeling...emotions lost in time
Only...in my silent dreams
Make sense...those fading faces

I cannot face anymore
This everlasting pain
I am seeking once more
A haven for my soul

Futile...attempts to erase
A memory...full of endless fears
Trying...endlessly all night
To make...nightmares go away

I cannot face anymore
This everlasting pain
I am seeking once more
A haven for my soul
I won't face anymore
This everlasting pain
I am dreaming once more
A heaven for my soul...forever

I cannot face anymore...
