

Medicine, Lucy

The day that I left Lucy
A tear fell from her eye
Now I don't have nobody, and I was such a fool
On the day that I left Lucy.

The day that I left Lucy
She cried, then said goodbye
Now it's done, and it's over, and I am all alone
On the day that I left Lucy

Now I don't have anymore songs to sing
'Cause you were everything, everything to me
I didn't realize I felt this way, until that day

Today I'm missing Lucy
And you say that she's OK, I hope she is.
Now I don't have nobody and no one will ever replace...
My Lucy, I love Lucy, Lucy

On the day that I left Lucy... my Lucy
