Meg Myers, The Morning After

I couldn't sleep last night
There were lions and bears tearing you from my side
I couldn't sleep last night
How you look like my daughter
It's burnt in my mind

And I can't feel anything the morning after you...

And I can't tell anyone the morning after you...

I couldn't sleep last night You were chasing the birds till the beast caught your eye I couldn't sleep last night How you look like an angel It's burnt in my mind

I can't feel anything the morning after you... I can't tell anyone the morning after you...

And I hope you sleep with a merry gold I hope you win it this time And I pray you don't fear the animals I'll save you, I promise this time

I couldn't sleep last night
There were lions and bears tearing you from my side
I couldn't sleep last night
How you look like my daughter
It's burned in my mind

I can't feel anything the morning after you... I would give anything...
